
CHALLENGE 70

D. MASON

There were many who went in huddled procession,
They knew not whither;
But, at any rate. success or calamity
Would attend all in equality.

There was one who sought a new road.
He went into direful thickets,
And ultimately he died thus, alone;
But they said he had courage.

The poetry of Stephen Crane printed throughout the yearbook best expresses our desire for an honest, vital experience in life.

Class of 1971

We used to find happiness in balloons, sandcastles and cotton candy. But they don't mean much to us now; our awareness of ourselves and the world has made happiness harder to find. Pessimism has no place in the search for answers to our new-found problems; neither do sandcastles. We can find the answers with the help of experience and reason; happiness comes not only from the satisfaction of finding a solution, but from the struggles of reaching it.

All the people we've ever met and all the experiences we've ever had have helped us form our opinions and face our responsibilities. They have helped us find new balloons which don't break so easily.

We would like to thank all of our teachers for helping us so much through our school years, as well as Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Hostetter for their hard work and understanding. Especial thanks to Mr. Bingham, Mr. Jarvis, Mrs. Johnston, and Mrs. Patton. Thanks also to Tom Herbert for his help on the year-book, and Mrs. Jarvis, without whom we could never have gotten it together.

WHO'S WHO IN THE SENIOR CLASS?

(Famous First, Middle, and Last words.)

Read the directions carefully before you begin. Completely fill in appropriate block. Since you will have a limited amount of time when you take the test, work as quickly as you can without being careless or inaccurate. Do not hesitate to skip a question that is too difficult for you. Do not worry if you cannot complete the test. Many students who perform well in the exam do not answer every question. Do not guess. Guessing is as likely to lower your score as to raise it. However, if you have some knowledge of the answer and are able to eliminate at least one of the choices as wrong your chances are improved. You will have five and one half minutes to complete the first section.

I TRUE AND/OR FALSE

1. John Moggio is a member of the Mafia. T
2. Andy Farmer wears elevator shoes. F
3. Grace Ting flunked kindergarten. T
4. Kathy Watt has wooden feet. T
5. Dave Delong is a Republican. F
6. Judy Stauffer is a Democrat. T
7. Victor England really is Allen Funt. F
8. Tom Herbert is a member of the senior class. F
9. Robby Erdmann was abroad last year. T
10. Liss Byers has reservations. T
11. Bob Brandt gave up cigarettes. F
12. Jim Gottlieb plays a violin. F
13. Lois is real. T
14. Willy is. T
15. Marty Schell likes M&M 's. F
16. Dale is a girl. T

MULTIPLE CHOICE

You have four minutes to complete this section. Please mark only one answer.

1. Tom Kurtz drives a:
   - A. snowmobile
   - B. taxi
   - C. Mustang
   - D. none of the above

2. Dave Delong sleeps during:
   - A. first period
   - B. second period

Nixon Finds Bloopers In Super Bowl Supe

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18— Like most American males, President Nixon watched the Super Bowl game on television yesterday and had some opinions on the caliber of the contest.

"Somebody asked me about it and I said 'I hope I don't make that many mistakes in one day'," the President told a group of visitors to his office today.

Ski & Winter Sports

Your handy guide to ski areas, lodgings, transportation, equipment and other items for skiers. Every Thursday in The New York Times Sports Pages...every Sunday in the Travel Section.

HOW TO BE A REAL SPORT

Get the whole experience. Go behind the sports headlines with The New York Times. Times sportswriters give you the comments of the players, the strategy of the play and tell you what the facts and figures mean. The Times has the largest sports staff going to make sure you get comprehensive coverage.

And reading about sports is all the more fun when you have The New York Times delivered to your door. That way, the real sport comes out in you before breakfast.

Home delivery of The New York Times is easy

SPORTS

I saw a man pursuing the horizon;
Round and round they sped.
I was disturbed at this;
I accosted the man.
"It is futile," I said,
"You can never—"

"You lie," he cried,
And ran on.

From think-tank types to radical activists, a group of Americans wants to change the United States Constitution. This is not a new business — changes in United States society have always begotten the urge to change the nation's basic legal document. The Center for Study of Democratic Institutions and the Black Panthers are two groups involved—each in very different ways. The most basic need, they agree, is to change people.

ACTIVITIES

A man saw a ball of gold in the sky;
He climbed for it,
And eventually he achieved it—
It was clay.

Now this is the strange part:
When the man went to the earth
And looked again,
Lo, there was the ball of gold.
Now this is the strange part:
It was a ball of gold.
Aye, by the heavens, it was a ball of gold.

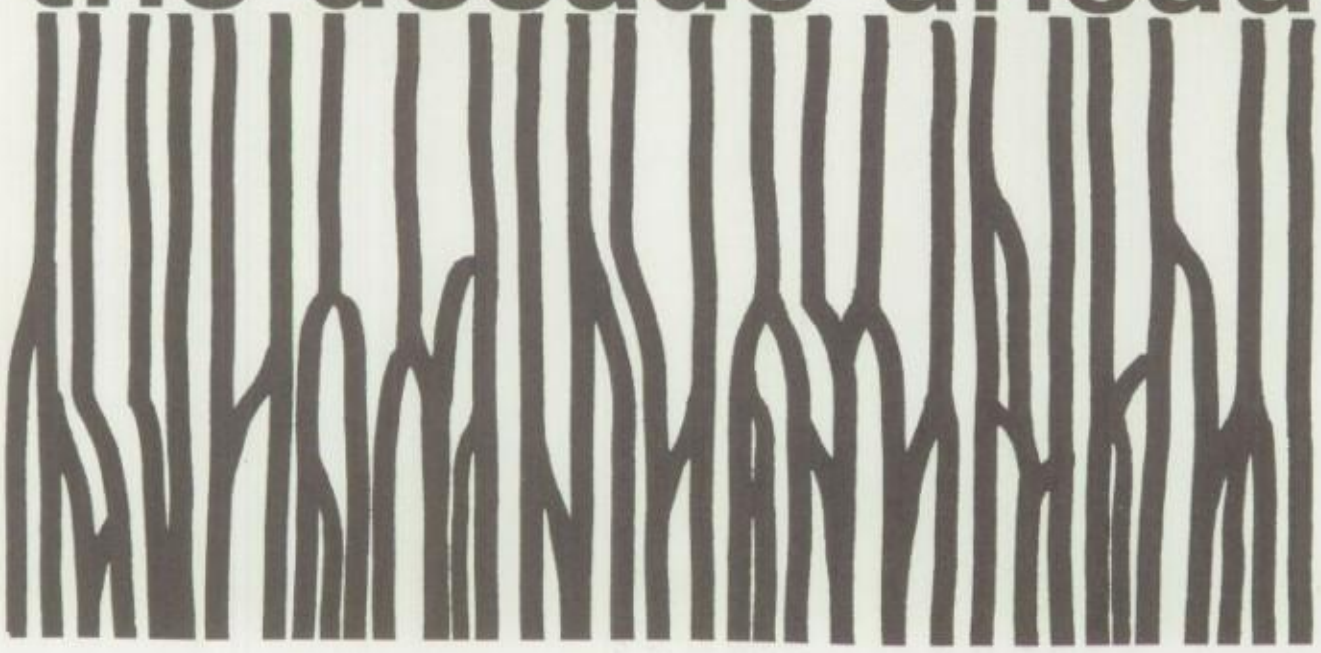
the decade ahead



. . . will be one of realizing the potential which lies in our roots . . . a period of dramatic change for the entire globe.

Your school years have equipped you with facts, thoughts, questions . . . and some of the answers. Your search for more answers begins now. It is a search that will never end, for the world, with its expanding horizons, is growing further from the simple answer. The excitement and knowledge gained from the search are valuable and will lead to greater, deeper thoughts and understandings.

Know, too, that this search will inevitably lead to the answers of tomorrow . . . answers different from those of today. For tomorrow's world will be a changed world.

You, the graduating class, can claim possession of the roots of knowledge. It is these roots that will direct the rate and course of tomorrow's growth toward a better world.
